

great inconvenience to himself to treat me again this evening. Shriram returned from Karli where he had gone to put the engine right.

Thursda~ 14th February~ 1901

I had no fever this evening. Dr Mathai came to see me and said I shall no more have any from to day. Shriram's aunt Koji[?] left today for Bassin to make arrangements for Venu's approaching wedding. Anant Purushotam and Shriram supped with us the [+++] women had gone.

Friday~ 15th February~ 1901

Portraits of European gentlemen and ladies we have painted[:] His Grace the Duke of Buckingham (Governor of Madras) Lady Mary Gunville[?] and Lady Anne Sir Mile Grant Duff Lady Grant Duff Dr M.L. Farnez (Madras) One of the recent Governors General of Portuguese India 1894-5 Dr Willigton Grey (Bombay) General Sir H. Prendergash

Saturday~ 16th February~ 1901

Was glad to receive a telegram from Vasudewan Namputhri Rawat of Badrinath that he was acquitted on appeal. I had been free from fever for two days. Wrote to Dr Thurston the Honorary Secretary to send us a catalogue of the Exhibition which is to open this evening in Madras.

[No entry for 17th February 1901]

Sunday~ 18th February~ 1901

I went to Mumbra to try to finish my sketch but there are so many details on the sunlit hills in the distance that I could not do anything on the foreground. We drove to Thana in a tonga and from there took train at about 8 p.m. for Bombay.

Tuesday~ 19th February~ 1901

Early in the morning we heard that a thief attempted to enter one of the sheds inhabited by a Bania. We have to be vigilant in future. The day is very cloudy and so could not go to Mumbra again.

Wrote a letter to my cousin K.R.R.

Wednesday~ 20th February~ 1901

Having had an appointment to meet Ms Edmund Russel, the great American actor, we paid him a visit at Watson's Annex at

